

Cyrillus Harinowo

Place & Date of birth: Yogyakarta, February 9, 1953

EDUCATION

1. Master Degree, Accounting, Gadjah Mada University, Indonesia, April 1977
2. Master of Arts, Development Economics, Center for Development Economics, Williams College, Massachusetts, June 1981
3. Doctor in Monetary and International Economics, Vanderbilt University, Tennessee, April 1985

EMPLOYMENT

- 2000 – IMF, Technical Assistance Adviser, Monetary and Exchange Affairs Department
- 1998 - 2000 IMF, Alternate Executive Director
- 1994 - 1998 Bank Indonesia, Director, Money Market Department
Bank Indonesia, Deputy Director, Economics Research Department
- 1989 - 1991 Bank Indonesia, Manager, Research Division
- 1988 - 1989 Ministry of Trade, Assistant to the Minister
- 1985 - 1988 Bank Indonesia, Assistant to the Governor
- 1980 - 1985 Bank Indonesia, Scholarship Program, United States
- 1978 Bank Indonesia, Staff, Credit Planning Division
- 1977 Unilever Indonesia, Management Trainee
- 1977 “Touche Ross”, Management Consultant
- 1975 - 1977 “Hadori & Co”, Accounting Assistant
- 1975 – 1977 University of Gadjah Mada, Teaching Assistant

PUBLICATIONS

1. Book on “Indonesian Public Debt Management”
2. Book on “The IMF Experience from Crisis to Crisis” (forthcoming)
3. Articles in various major newspaper and magazines
4. Papers written for Seminars (Pacific Central Banking Seminars hosted by Hong Kong Monetary Authority and by Singapore Monetary Authority, SEANZA Central Banking Seminar hosted by the Central Bank of China)